

Activ8-3D were fun and professional to work with throughout this project and they made the technical elements of the project incredibly simple for all to understand. The 3D-content that they created using animation, HD film and post production was simply amazing! We were all a bit nervous and not sure that they could pull this project off in time as we gave them only 2 weeks notice, but talking to my colleagues at Coca-Cola after the event, we believe that you've helped us to deliver the most entertaining and dynamic sales conference ever! So what are going to do for us next year?
